Listen my children, and you shall hear,
Of the stirring events of the past school year,
The notable occurence of TWO LUSTRUMS
OF LEARNING,
Which set the past flames,
fiercely burning.
Whether bomb or explosion,
a dance or a game,
To record each record correctly
has been my chief aim.
To stop, look and listen,
that mem'ry may last,
As you chuckle or sigh,
when you ponder the past.
In my role as the CLARION of Central High.

SENIOR'S WILL AND PROPHECY

I, Lori Barnabi, bequeath my ability to make it through four years of Central to Lori Roth, my ability to laugh at anything to anyone who wants to try, d a years supply of candy and gum to Tom Brendza and Russ McHenry.

I, Elaine Bazzoli, bequeath to anyone brave enough to accept the responsibilities as "Head-Ed" of the Fleur-de-lis.

I, Jerry Bonamico, bequeath all my hunting experiences and knowledge to someone who needs them — Mr. Keffer; all my study habits to my brother Roddy, and all my track skills to Jeff Brindley.

I, Linda Bonanno, bequeath all the fun bus rides and one more year of Central to Jaccie Martinelli, all the fun lunch hours to Max, Junior and Sweitz, and to John one night at Charolette's Inn.

I, Jack Brendza, bequeath my laugh to anyone who lacks a sense of humor.

I, Paul Cahan, bequeath to anyone who needs it, my ability to be late for school and never be marked late.

I, Colin Capozella, bequeath my cheating tactics to anyone who wants to breeze throught high school; all my religion notes to all those who are bored to death of listening to ignorant philosophies and motorcycle stores: to Miss Bennett two dozen cookies and a can of diet pepsi for Trig. class; to Mrs. Shumaker my knowledge of Senior Math so she can teach instead of just cleaning transparencies; to my sister Maureen,the patience and strength to make it through her Junior and Senior Religion classes.

I, Barb Cercone, bequeath, to the class of '81 all the fun the class of '80 has our Senior year; to Sister Ruth all of my Alg. II "D" slips so she can use them for next year's class; all the fun I've had here at Central to my sister Donna.

I, Mike Civiello, bequeath my class presidencies, student council presidency and vice-presidency and varsity club chairmanship to anyone willing to devote their sanity to a worthwhile cause.

I, Tom Conidi, bequeath to Tom Coventry all my Algebra sense and a yep, yep, yep, yep; to Juliann Rondinella a goodluck in keeping up the parlay business: to Dave DeMonte my athletic ability to Defensive End.

I, Kelly Corso, bequeath my patience and cheerleading ability to Dana Yurich and Sally Sifferlin, my strenght to keep a grip and stay out of trouble to Max and John, my car to Dave Litty, a party at the Stein Haus to Leah Marshall and the memory of one good friend in the summer of '79 and the rest of the gang to Leah also.

I, Mark Cunningham, in the state of total insanity, hereby leave my good grade to anyone who wants a "D".; to Chuck Rest all the good memories to King's Island in '78; to my sister Karen all my skill to cheat on tests and my skill in Art. I leave all my cheat sheets to the underclassmen for future passing; to the school I leave the thought that they will never hear from Squints again.

I, Jim Day, bequeath all of the compliments I received from Mrs. Barlett — a grand total of 1 — to Dave Litty.

I, Helen Decker, bequeath my basketball ability to Theresa Daugherty, my number to Lori Smoke, my bad ankle to Lisa West, my ability to have "Kef" tied around my finger to Pam Patterson, and all my hot fudge sundaes to Mr. Keffer.

I, Mike Domenico, bequeath my speed and ability on the football field to anyone who wears a 8 ½ football spike.

I, Lisa Donohoe, bequeath to all the basketball juniors the "tradition" started at the C.V. and St. Thomas games that H.D. and I started; to Binky all my "fun" times, game bus rides, my "stories" and a new pair of tennis shoes to escape the chasing police; my ability to ignore underclassmen to Lori and Karen, my cheerleading ability to Sherri Springhetti (since she wants it!), to Eric and Dave another year of Home Ec. I (with Vicki and me), to Wags my skirt and tennis racket, and most of all, my "munchies" (and "causes") to Mr. Keffer.

I, Bryan Dusini, bequeath all my tardiness to my brother Doug, just to keep it running in the family.
I, Dan Finnegan, bequeath my ability to listen to the best bands such as Pink Floyd, Jethro Tull, Neil Young, J. Geils, and Lynyrd Skynyrd to anybody who listens to disco trash.
I, Mike Fitzgerald, bequeath my partying abilities and paraphernalia to my little brother Beaver and my Pink Floyd music collection to Therese Monaco.
I, Jeff Fondriest, bequeath my baseball and basketball talents to the underclassmen, my football abilities to Bob Springhetti and my knowledge of the game of football to Kevin Keffer.
I, John Fragasse, bequeath to Jim my great talent to be masterful at anything he does.
I, Steve Gintz, bequeath to anyone at Central with the name Parson my friendship.
I, Mary Joe Hamma, bequeath to my sister, Laurie and anyone else who thinks they can carry over the tradition of the 3rd floor, and also to the future Special Art Classes all the goodies the first Special Art Class has had.
I, Richard Huprich, bequeath to Chris Doney my leadership of RBPU, to Jackie Cercone the patience to stay at McDonald's another year, to my brother Dave, who will be here next year, my ability to slide by all my classes, and finally to Matt Fantin my outstanding rebounding ability.
I, Michelle Indermill, bequeath my seat in the senior class to Jill Roth, and to the Junior Class: there are fun times and seriuos times and I hope you find them both here at Central.
I, Jim Kennedy, bequeath all of my wrestling talent and uniform to Vinny Martinelli (don't get pinned); to Tom Coventry my RBPU Committee Seat and my baseball spikes to Joe Cecil.
I never wore; my Public Relations Dept. to Vince Magnacca; and my killer instinct to Joe Cecil.
I, Rob King, being of sound mind and body, bequeath my baseball talents to anyone who likes splinters and my share of the Gong Show prize money to Leah Marshall (better luck next year.)
I, Jim Krocker, bequeath my purple socks to Mike Specht and one jug of apple cider to Tom Casimir.
I, Blake Kyle, bequeath all my wrestling spirit and abilities to Jimmy Burdette and Mr. Fisher — they need it desperately.
I, Elizabeth Lehigh, bequeath to Dianna Levengood my place in the Class of 1981 to handle as she sees fit.
I, Teresa Mangon, bequeath my Vidal Sassoon haircut to Leah Marshall, my bookkeepping talents to Cathy Breehl, my ability to get up early enough to catch the school bus to my sister Mary Beth, and my patience to handle Brittainy and Tina to anyone who rides the bus.
I, Diana Mann, bequeath to my sisters Jenny and Jackie all my notebooks which I've used through my four years of high schooland the bench that Mike and I used during lunch to any couple who wants a sort of comfortable place to sit.
I, Monica Marcinko, bequeath my ability to talk through entire Study Halls with out getting caught to Jackie Martinelli,and my ability to constantly smile through all four years to Laurie Hamma.
I, Jim Marino, bequeath to Doug Ross the name "Magic" and to Mr. McLaughlin my "Punn-ishing" sense of humor.
I, Paul Martinelli, bequeath my ability to wrestle to Joe Cecil, to Jack Fisher my ability to coach wrestling, to Chuck Rest one more ride to "King's Island" with e class of '78.
I, Ann Mascotti, bequeath all the happiness and wisdom I found at T.C.C. to all my underclassmen.
I, Jim Meyers, bequeath all my bananas to the cafeteria for the students so they can have banana splits, (Monkey Meyers.)
I, Shelli Norman, bequeath to Becky Pietro the use of the phone between 12:00-12:30, the name "Toni" given to me by Mr. Rest to anyone that is good enough to accept the Hair-do, and to my brother Mike, all my notebooks with empty pages.
I, Jim Parson, bequeath to my brother Max my football ability and to Lori my ability to ignore the idiots at lunch time.
I, Jeffrey T. Patterson, bequeath to all underclassmen the challenge to mature enough mentally and physically to sruvive in this world.
I, Darla Pershing, bequeath to Lori Burdette all my abilities with cheerleading, my abilities in Typing, Shorthand and Office Practice to anyone who is nutty enough to have "Betty" three classes a day, my B.S.ing abilities to all the future religion students, all my religion papers that I never got back from Miss Bennett to any upcoming Seniors. (Maybe she'll have them graded by then.)
I, Sue Petitti, bequeath my ability to fall down on the volleyball court during a game to Jill Roth, one bag of corn, two bags of soybeans, and one good snipe-hunt to Cathy Beamer, Jill Roth, and the rest of the Wainwright gang.
I, Howard Poorman, being of no mind and cheating skills left from school, bequeath my pitching arm to anybody who wants it (there is no mileage left on it), and all of my body to Sally Sifferlin, especially my white teeth.
I, Tom Putnam, bequeath my ability to dunk the ball and break my arm to Matt Fantin, my singing ability to Chris Doney and all my charm to Binky Ravine.
I, Chris Ross, bequeath my bookkeepping knowledge to Tom Ceventry, my basketball talent to my brother Doug, to Sister Ruth Ann, a voice box to holler at the Senior Math Class, and my position on the RBPU team to anyone who is good enough to have it.
I, Ben Roth, bequeath my cheerleading ability to Lisa Wise and my bounce passes to Tom Coventry.
I, Larry Roth, bequeath my basketball ability to Doug LeMasters and I hope he uses it in the right way; my ability to torture rats in psychology class to anyone who is cruel enough to do it; and my ability to flirt without getting caught to Bobbo Beamer.
I, Mark Seibel, bequeath my ability to make it through one of Cap's parties without getting sick and watching his "G" rated films.
We, Tom Semple, bequeath all of our schisophrenia to our friend Hazel.
I, Jack Shalosky, bequeath to Thomas Coventry my ability in Accounting I and I promise Mr. Fisher not to become a part of the "Social Deviance."
I, Steve Sifferlin, bequeath my pitching ability to anybody who can stand the smell.
I, Laura Slowikowski, bequeath my beautiful "white" car to Scott Mattevi and Doug Edie so they will always have a ride home from school, and my position on the volleyball team to my sister Julie.
I, Dave Snyder, bequeath my charm with the ladies to my brother, Kenneth.
I, Matt Specht, bequeath to Junior my basement for his parties.
I, Tom Spencer, bequeath my season tickets to Indian Valley South basketball games to Dave Kopp and I bequeath all of my hatred of the Pittsburgh Steelers (and especially Terry Bradshaw) to Denise Vincent.
I, Dodie Strimbu, bequeath my ability to drive people crazy by finishing my writing assignments weeks before they are due to anyone who waits until the last minute to finish theirs.
I, Mike Sullivan, bequeath my outstanding football ability to any one who thinks they're man enough to handle it, and my unorthodox driving techniques to anyone who puts no value on their life.
I, Mike Sweet, bequeath my outstanding golfing ability to anyone who thinks they're ready to become professional and my church league basketball ability to Tom Coventry, who really needs it.
I, Chris Triplett, bequeath my position as President of Pep Club to anyone who is crazy enough to actually want it.

I, Frank Unick, bequeath all of my sweaters to Jackie Martinelli, my membership in the Steeler's Fan Club to Dave Reynolds, my first baseman's reserve baseball glove to Chris Campo, and my position as Student Council President to Tim Wright.

I, Lori Veigel, bequeath to Teresa West all my forwardness and ability to speak out in class and all my long, hard hours of work put in at the school to the future classes at Central.

I, Annette Vesco, bequeath to Cheryl Markino my position of first flute and the ability I have to play the flute.

I, Dan Vesco, bequeath my nickname of "Beaver" to Binky Ravine since it is more masculine.

I, Bridget Watson, bequeath to Cathy Breehl all of my bookkeepping tests I did so well on, to Jill Roth, my ability to laugh uniquely; to all of the Junior girls in fourth period lunch, the library; to anyone who has a driving permit to take lessons from the right person; to Mark Lamonica, my boats; to Judy Dalpaiz, a car so she won't have to walk home alone every night, the ability to 3-5; and to Jackie Martinelli, a year of lunches at the Burger King or anywhere.

I, Dave Welker, being of half a mind and totally insane because of school, bequeath my ability to flunk Senior Math to any fool who's dumb enough to take it: I would leave my pitching ability to someone if I had any; to Mr. Keffer, I leave a tack on your chair; and to Beaver Fitzgerald, my sympathy because you have two years to go yet.

I, Jack Yurich, bequeath the holes in my pants to anyone who wants them and to Russ McHenry, my left linebakcer spot.

I, Therese Zadra, bequeath to Marissa Alexander and Jennifer Young my golden drum sticks and my ability to be late for band every day; to Barb Lawless all the religion papers I never got back from Miss Bennett; and to next year's T.C.C. band, the ability to start band practice before the opening season,and to anyone who has done a good enough job, all my early dismissals.

I, Jaccie Zavasky, bequeath all the the wisdom and experience I gained through practice to the great guys on the 1980 Quiz Team; all the fun times and the opening night jitters to anyone at Central crazy enough to be a member of the Drama Club; and finally, all the good times I had at Central to my brother, Paul.

I, John Zucal, bequeath to my brother Bob, my football ability; to my brother James, my church league jersey; to Mr. Keffer, all my U.S. History and P.O.D. notebooks; to Doug Ross, my collection of handshakes; to Mark Lamonica, my fourwheel drive magazines; to Tom Coventry, the name "Otis", my insanity to anyone crazy enough to want it; the key to Stallards Market to Joe Cecil; and my art talent to Becky Pietro.

Class Prophecy

In the year, 2000, the class of 1980 had a reunion at the Dave Welker mansion in the Beverly Hills section of California. Dave's been living on the hog since he's taken over the ownership of Studio 54.

The first to arrive are Jerry Bonamico and Steve Sifferlin. Jerry was bragging to Steve about his successful bow hunt for Dall Sheep in the northern Rockies. Steve told Jerry a bunch of lies about how good hunting has been in the Appalachianes.

Tom Putnam, Rob King, and Frank Unick, and the rest of band provided entertainment for part of the evening. Jack Brendza commented on the ill-fitting clothing they were wearing. The clothes were gifts from Mike Sweet and Annette Vesco, now married. Mike bought them from his dad's store at a discount price. Jack thought they should get some new clothes from Norman's which he now manages.

Bob Litty came in with his cue stick in his hand, looking for the Billard Room. Dave's butler showed him to the room where he found Rich Huprich, a five-star general in the Marienes, telling Colin Capozella about the Marine life. Bob beat Colin in ten straight games of pooland won a hundred bucks. Bob's been traveling around, living off the money he wins from pool.

As we move outside, near the pool, we find all the people who have married their high school sweethearts. Mr. and Mrs. Greg Brumbaugh (Darla Pershing) talked about how Greg assumed his new career. "Did you hear about Greg taking over J.W. Frenzel driving school?" Darla said. Chris then asked, "What happened to J.W.?" Greg told them the story of how J.W. was killed while trying to teach Blake Klye how to drive again.

Close to the water, Jeff Patterson and Lorri Veigel are talking to Sister Celeste Gaffney on whether or not they should make it legal. Celeste has been teaching kindergarten in Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Fitzgerald (Therese Monaco) were sitting talking to Mr. and Mrs. Ben Roth (Lisa Wise) about how many kids they have. Mike said, "I had to carry on the Fitzgerald tradition by having a dozen kids." Ben said, "We only have six so far."

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Gasser (Shelli Norman) asked Vicki Callentine how the car loaning business was going. Vickie said that Mathew Specht rented one out and wrecked it on the way home from Bro & Bro Construction, where he, John Fragasse, David Snyder, and Dan Vesco work as bricklayers. They tried to get Dave to hire them to build a new four stall garage, but Dave said he'd let them sit outside and if they got rusty, he would buy a new one.

Blake Kyle has been piloting for the friendly skies of United. He just returned from a flight to Africa where he picked up Jim Myers who has been hanging around the jungles.

Athletic Directors, Tom Spencer and Larry Roth, of I.V.S. and T.C.C., respectively, were in a heated argument about who would win the big game this season. Larry's assistant, Chris Ross, joined the argument. Teresa Mangon was seen giving flowers to Dave's butler to give to Larry. She's still sending secret admirer gifts.

Ralph Conidi moved to Paul Martinelli's town of Roswell to hide out for a while after he got out of prison for illegal gambling. Paul's sidekick, Jack Shalosky, helps keep everybody under their thumbs.

Mike Sullivan, John Zucal, and Ann Mascotti were discussing their businesses at the Bar & Grill on wheels a combined drive through, Nautalis, and Sam's Bar & Grill. John said "I get alot of business after the Nautalis closes." Mikes been travelling the U.S. in his Bar & Grill. He said he gets along pretty well. Mark Cunningham travelled around with Mike for a few days. Marks been in the 50 states and has visited four other countries. Ann said, "I have alot of regular customers and business is good." Dan Finnegan, who has been taking life easy in the mountains of Colorado, asked Mike to stop out and see Colorado.

On the third floor of Dave's mansion, we find Lisa Donahoe, Helen Decker, and Mary Jo Hamma. Lisa is telling them how she took over her mom's position as secretary and cheerleader advisor at TCC. Helen has had the honor of being the first woman to play professional basketball. She said, "It's alot of fun being the high scorer on the team." Mary Jo told them, "Spread the word that I'm having a party next weekend."

Elaine Bazzoli was talking to the World Olympic Champs of figure skating, Mike Domenico and Diana Mann. Elaine told them that she's finally over the loss of her dog. Mike and Diana are going to perform in Atlanta, Georgia on the first of the month. They have a pretty heavy schedule.

Out in the backyard Howard Poorman and Jim Krocker are playing pitch and catch. Howard is a starting pitcher for Cleveland and Jim plays for the Pirates. Linda Lu Bonanno, present owner of the Burger King Franchise, brought tons of french fries for everyone.

Cheryl Hutson, Sue Petitti, and Jim Day, world reknowned artists, discussed their painting techniques. All three have paintings hanging all over the world.

Tom Semple, manger of Krogers, was telling Mike Civiello all about the running of his store. Mike, now an expert electronics engineer, told Tom, "With all my skill in electronics I could turn your store into a one — man business." Tom thought about it for awhile and told Mike he would take him up on his offer.

By now everyone has heard of the star that arose from our class. Both Jack Yurich and Bridget Wastson are in television. Jack's taking over Lou Ferregno's position for this years series of the Hulk. Bridget is starting a new series of Hogans Heroes and portrays Shultz. Dorothy Strimbu, famous book and movie critic, says, "they both fit the parts perfectly."

Gathered in a large group are Lori Hupp, Monica Marcinko, Lori Barnabi, Jaccie Zavasky, Theresa Zadra, Michelle Indermill,and Laura Slowikoski. Its been a long time since they've seen each other and they were telling each other what they've been up to. Lori Hupp told them, "I've been living in Arizona teaching preschool." This surprised Monica because she just lives next door in Mexico raising horses. Lori Barnabi said, "I've started a school for extroverts, anyone want to join?" Jaccie Zavasky said she would but she had to teach music at St. Mary's and wouldn't have the time. Navy nurse, Therese Zadra said that she was on a three-week leave from the Navy.

Therese talked to Laura Slowikowski about her education. Laura said, "I have six masters degree and am going for six more." Michelle said she was enjoying the sun in Florida.

Jim Parson was found trying to talk Kelly Corso, barmaid at the Windchasers, into bringing her car to his car cleaning business. Kelly said, "I'll drop it off sometime."

Jim Marino had to leave the party early so he could deliver furniture from Wilmars.

Barb Cercone and Jim Kennedy were talking about how Jim took over Friendly's and renamed it Kennedy's. Jim said, "Business is lousy now." Barb told him that her pizza shop was doing great.

Steve Gintz was found welding parts on his car out in the parking lot. He said, "I got in a wreck on the way to the party and found all the parts I need right here in Dave's parking lot."

Paul Cahan and Mark Seibel were walking around getting contracts from many of the people at the party to install "rooms" for them.

Liz Lehigh came to our reunion by mistake, she should have gone to the one for the class of 1981. Naturally we kicked her out.

Well, for many people, Dave's party was a three day nightmare, for others it was only two. People stumbled out at every hour. The party was success. It was agreed upon that Lisa Donohoe would host the next reunion in the year 2020.

Here comes Bryan Dusini, late again. Bryan the party is over. "I thought the party was tonight, I wanted to get here early," Bryan said.

1979 HOMECOMING

Chris Triplett was crowned 1979 Homecoming Queen when we held our annual Homecoming ceremony at Crater Stadium during halftime of the Saints — Newcomerstown Trojans football game. Chris was chosen by the football team from among three candidates selected by the entire senior class. She was crowned by last year's Homecoming Queen, Debbie Fondriest, and presented with an autographed football and a bouquet of carnations by the football team captains: Mike Sullivan, Mike Domenico, Ben Roth, and Jack Yurich. Chris is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Triplett of New Philadelphia.

Chris Triplett

1979 Homecoming Queen, Chris Triplett and her attendants, Senior Lorri Veigel, Junior Mary Beth Mangon, Sophomore Laura King, Freshamn Jodi Moder, and Senior Diana Mann, are ready to leave for "The Land of Oz". Music for the Homecoming dance was by Crystal.

The 1979-80 Saints Varsity Basketball Team ended their season with a 16-6 overall record. They finished with a 6-4 IVC record. The season was highlighted by the Saints first ever win over Indian Valley South. The Saints lost to Hiland in a heartbreaking over-time, to Garaway in a fast paced game by one point, and to Malvern, Indian Valley North, and Zanesville Rosecrans. The Varsity Squad was runners-up in the Dover Class "A" Upper Bracket Sectional.
The Saints Reserve Squad ended their season with a 12-8 record. The Freshman Squad finished with a 12-5 record and placed second in the Freshman Boys Hiland Invitational Tournament.

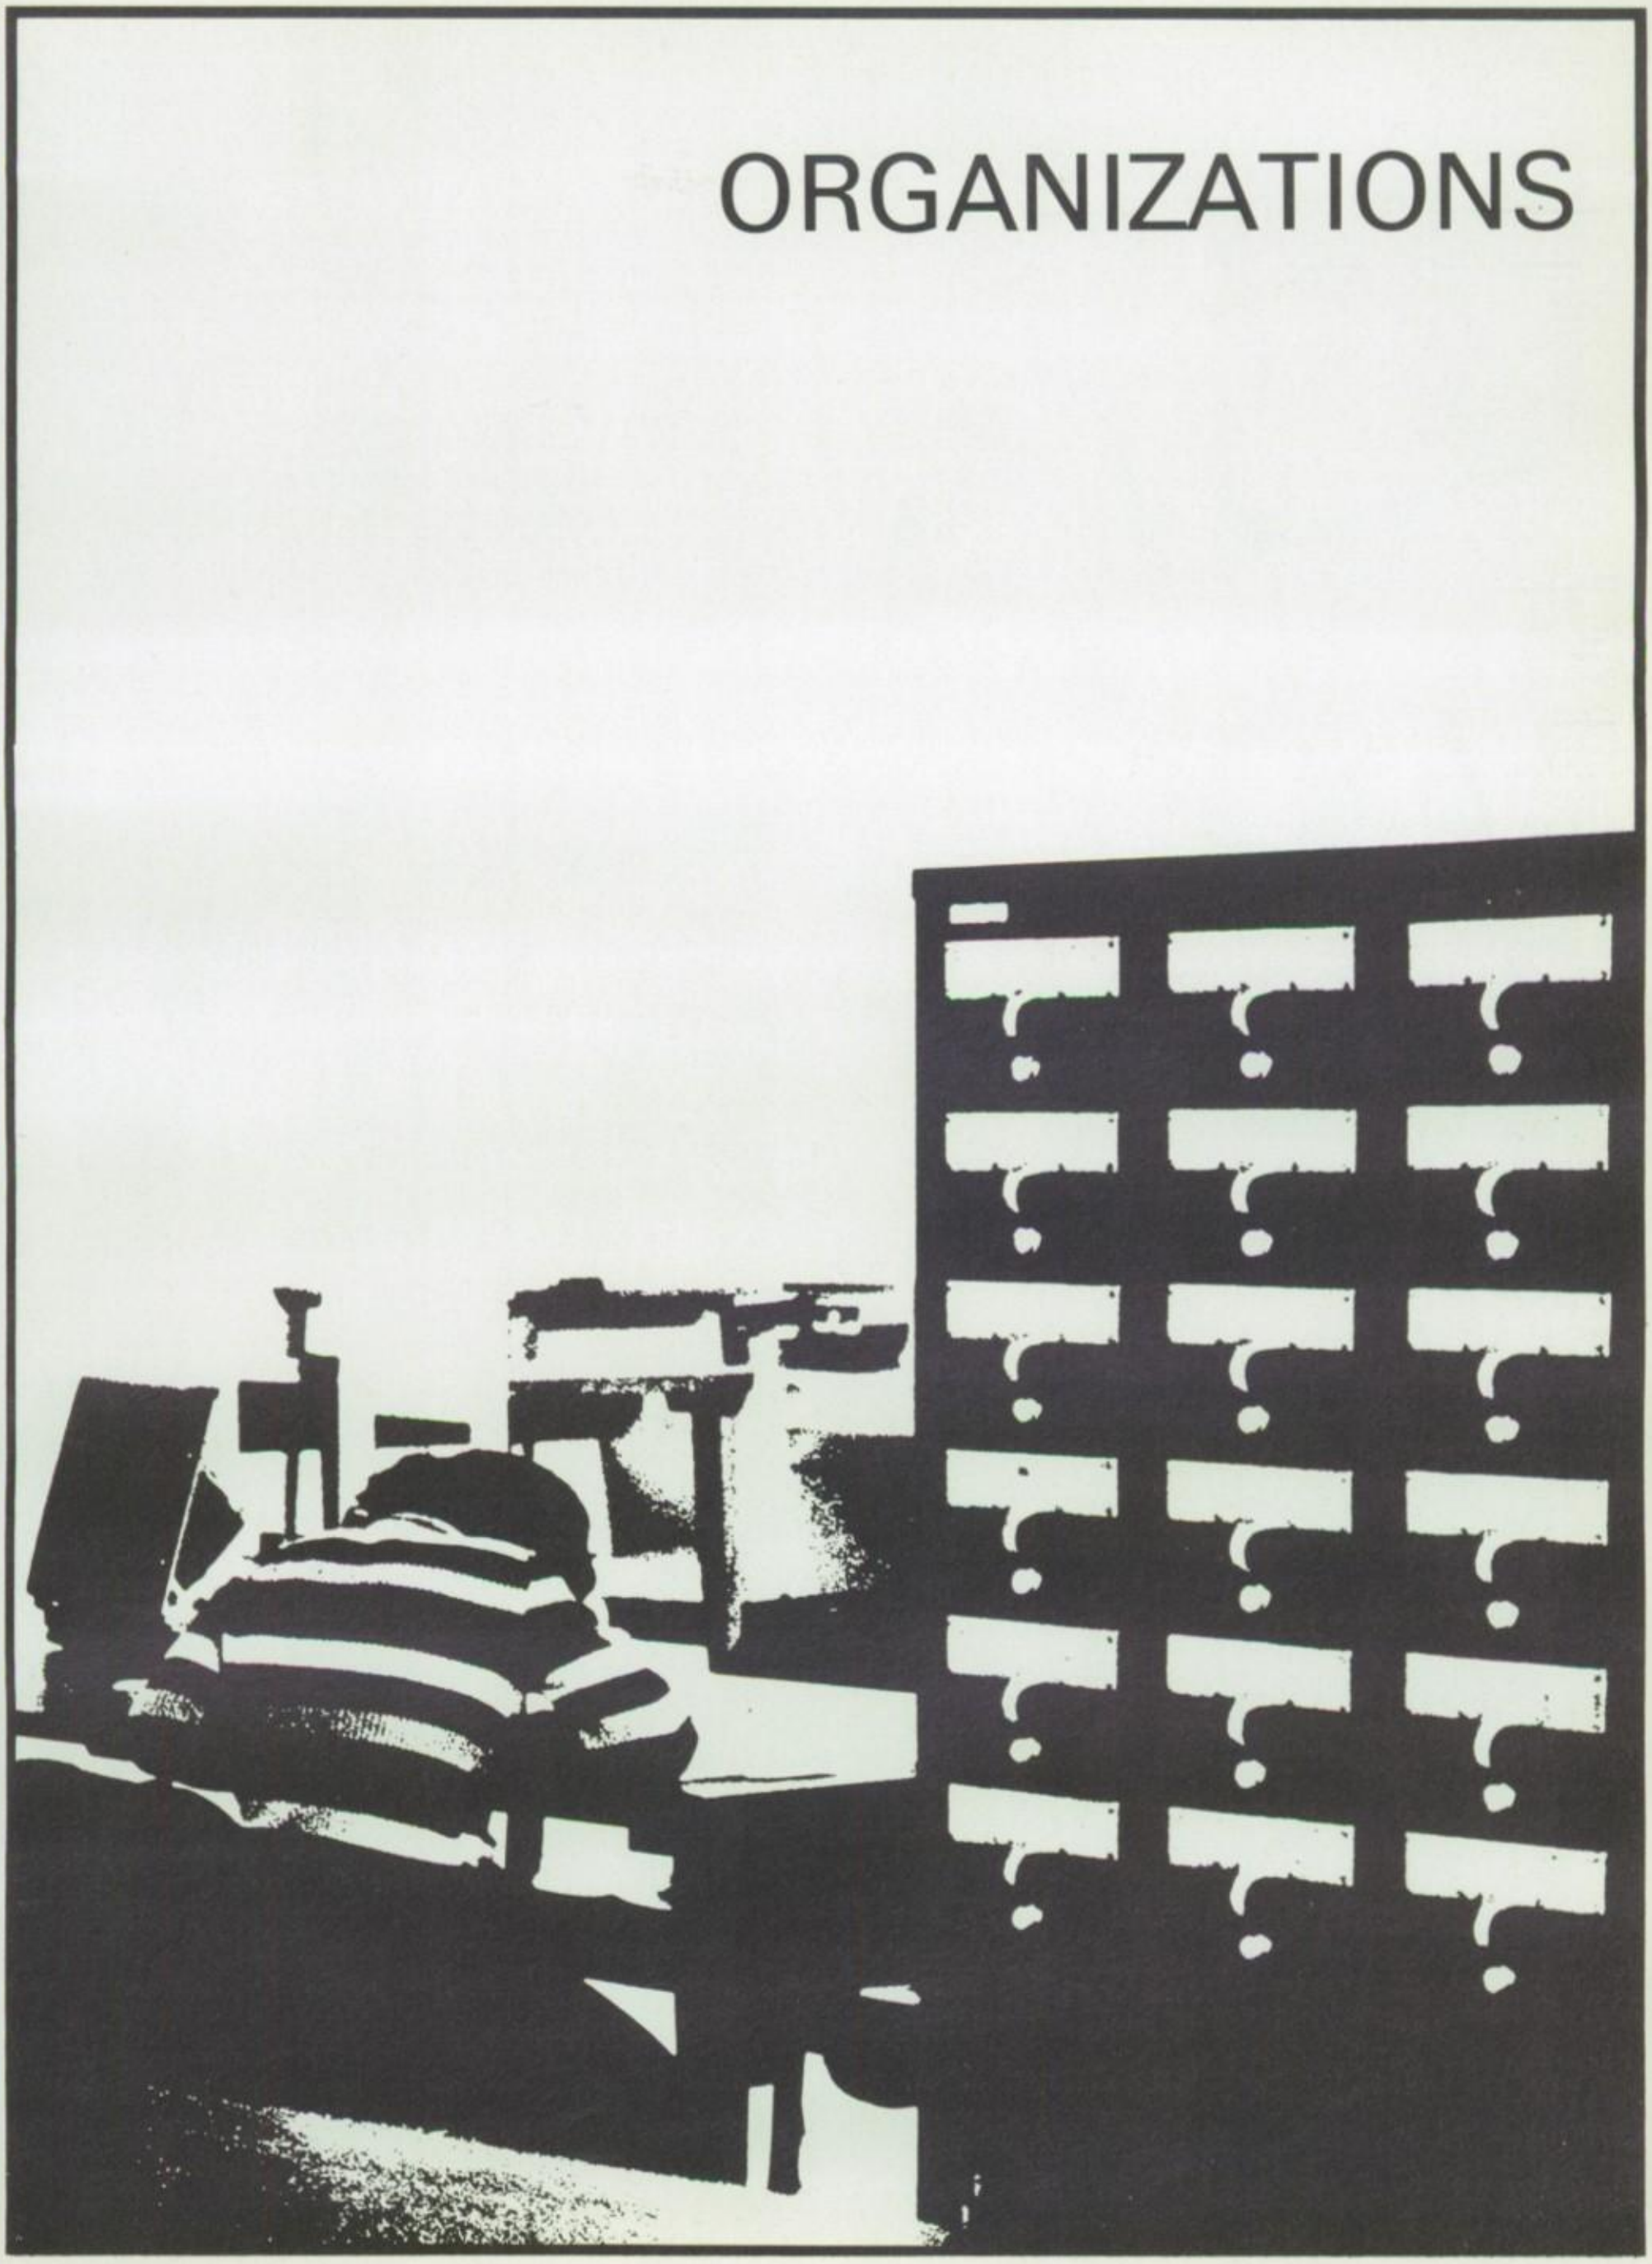
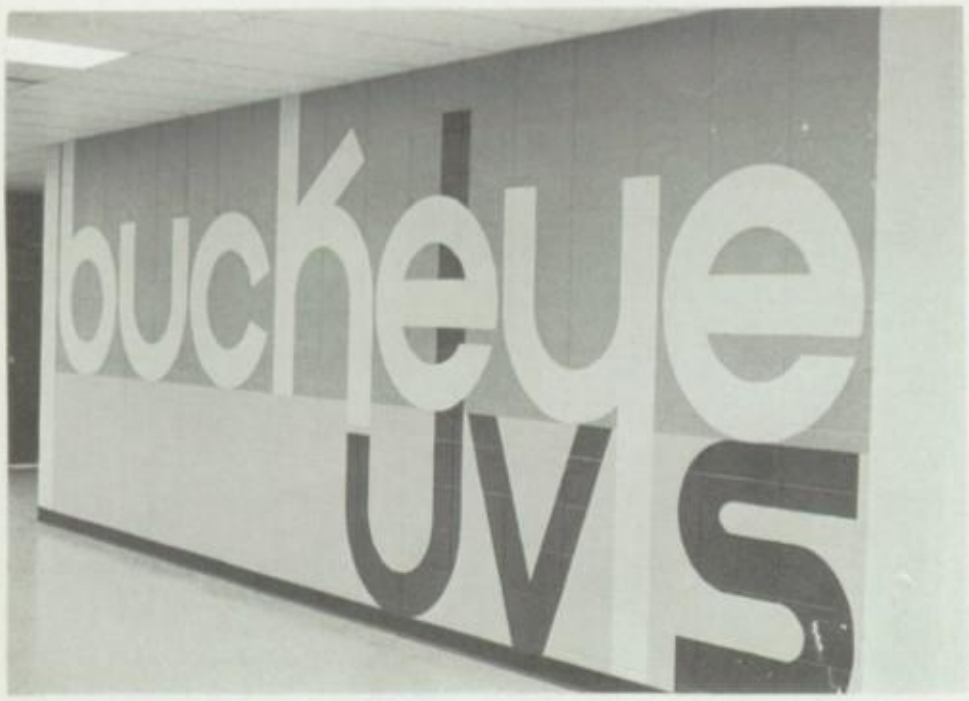
ORGANIZATIONS





Buckeye Joint Vocational School (J.V.A.) has an attendance of 1100 students who come from several counties: Tuscarawas, East Holmes, Hiland, Carrollton, and Connotton Valley.

J.V.S. has five main courses; Trade, Agriculture, Business/Office, Home Ec./Health, and Distributive Education, which break down into thrity-five different programs.

Each student attending J.V.S. may participate in any outside school activities and are kept in touch about school life on a day-to-day basis by selected representatives. Their religion courses, which they pick to research themselves, are completed on their own time.

Each of these students graduate from their home high schooland also receive a certificate from J.V.S.

Maria,
You're a sweet person & you deserve the best in life. I hope you get it! Remember our 8 years at St. Mary's. Those nuns were a riot! P.S. can still remember calling you Paula!)
Steve Bosetti
Love Ya!
Jean(ie)

Maria,
To a really nice girl who always is smiling. Very sweet, and fun to talk to. Have a nice summer and make sure you have fun.
BRIAN

Maria,
To a real sweet girl, who has a great taste for colors, especially purple. Remember all those crazy lunches together. Well, have fun this summer and see you next year.

Hey Maria
Wishing with you have been for I do not like you, you're unforgivable. letting little or you're smoke stea your purp

Maria,
No body knows more about "Sexual Hospital" than you do. Don't forget our talks on the bus, trying to catch up on "Sexual." Also, don't forget Brittanie & Tina, I'm sure you won't.
Kep up your personality and charm & you'll make it to the top.
AFA.
Love Mary Beth Margon

Maria,
To a really sweet girl who I thought was shy until I talked to Amy. Don't worry, I don't know anything incriminating. I hope we can become closer friends next year. Have a blast this summer.
Good Luck
Love,
